Come join us in Pittsburgh, PA! Great Drives – Laurel Highlands is a social and driving event with an opportunity to stretch your Porsche's legs in a gorgeous mountain area with pampered lodging and delicious meals. It's designed to appeal to both the driver and navigator, although a navigator is not necessary.

The Laurel Highlands of southwestern Pennsylvania is a scenic mountain region of winding roads, sweeping overlooks and home to architectural masterpiece Fallingwater, designed by Frank Lloyd Wright. The area also includes the solemn Flight 93 National Memorial near Shanksville, a place of reflection honoring the 40 passengers and crew of United Flight 93 who heroically perished on September 11, 2001.

We will be staying in the restored, historical Omni William Penn Hotel in downtown Pittsburgh. On Wednesday we will enjoy a reception dinner, followed by two days of nice drives on curvy, picturesque roads arriving at Fallingwater on Thursday and Flight 93 National Memorial on Friday. We will have a nice lunch as part of the Thursday and Friday drives. Thursday night will include a delicious dinner at Talia's a half a block from the hotel. Saturday will not have a scheduled drive, instead focusing on activities in downtown Pittsburgh. Saturday night to include a farewell dinner before departing Sunday morning. Each of the three dinners will include two drink tickets per person good for either wine or beer.

All of this for only $535 per person plus a small ticketing charge. Omni William Penn hotel is offering us a group rate of $169 per night plus state and local taxes. Parking is located within a block of the hotel. You are responsible for the hotel cost and for making reservations by clicking here.

Hotel reservations must be made by June 10th to get the discount.

Our event will be limited to about 50 people. Don't delay register soon.
